

PENNSYLVANIA QUARTER HORSE ASSOCIATION

Novice Championship State Qualification System

Here are the state qualifying requirements for Pennsylvania for the new AQHA Novice Championship Show

Pennsylvania

Qualifying Period: May 1, 2011 – June 30, 2012

- All Novice Youth and Novice Amateur exhibitors will earn state affiliate show points at any Pennsylvania Quarter Horse Association-approved show during the qualifying period.
- The exhibitor must be a member in good standing of AQHA and PQHA.
- The exhibitor must nominate for PQHA novice points. Points nomination rules will follow rules as outline for year-end award point nominations. For complete eligibility, exhibitor must nominate for both 2011 and 2012 year end points. There are no additional forms required for Novice Championship points to be tabulated.
- PQHA will tally the total points for each exhibitor in each of the classes.
- PQHA will submit the top three point earning exhibitors in each of the Novice disciplines being held at the Novice championship shows.
- Points are compiled on a one-horse, one-exhibitor basis.
- State points will be awarded based on the number of horses in a class and the exhibitor placing. The maximum points earned in one class is nine.

Learn more about the Novice Championship show at www.aqha.com